

JOB PROFILE

Ole Lynggaard Copenhagen Flagship Store in Stockholm

Ole Lynggaard Copenhagen is an international, luxury jewellery brand. Our passion is deeply rooted in unique design, artistic expression and skilled craftsmanship. As one of Scandinavia's leading companies within luxury products and fine jewellery, we are experiencing a significant international growth. After establishing our flagship store at Copenhagen Airport, we are taking the next step with a flagship store in a luxury shopping area in Stockholm. The store will open in September 2010.

We are looking for

- SALES PERSONNEL full time

By being part of a strong and enthusiastic sales team in our flag ship store in Stockholm, we can offer you a challenging position within an international luxury brand, an exciting environment and an interesting clientele.

You have a proven track record within retail sales and have a good sense for design and quality. You have a very good knowledge in the Scandinavian languages, in English and preferably a third language. Through your perseverance, drive and service minded personality; you are motivated to take on sales challenges by meeting our customer's interests whilst strengthening the Ole Lynggaard Copenhagen brand and image, through your persistent efforts. Customers see you as an outgoing and trustworthy person, with the ability to listen and tune into their needs. You are based in Stockholm.

We offer you a challenging position, working with a luxury brand, and we invite you to be part of our growing success both nationally and internationally. The right candidate will have the opportunity for growth and development within the company, as well as working closely with other competent and dedicated colleagues.

Please mail your application and your CV to job@olelynggaard.com. For more information about us, see www.olelynggaard.com.

